Journey to Costa Teguiise

→ Nearest airports: Lanzarote, Fuerteventura

Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival at Costa Teguiise

Today we arrive in Lanzarote. Transfer from Arrecife Airport to the hotel. The rest of the day is free to enjoy the beach resort of Costa Teguiise.

Day 2: Costa Teguiise – Haría, approx. 35 / 50 km

Pick up and fit bikes after breakfast and off you go! Visit César Manrique's famous and unique architectural works such as El Jardín de Cactus, Los Jameos del Agua, El Mirador del Río which form an integral part of the landscape. We also have the opportunity to visit the volcanic cave of La Cueva de los Verdes. We take in fishing villages without losing sight of the impressive Monte Corona volcano. Finally, we arrive in the picturesque village of Haría surrounded by its uncoun-table palm trees.

Day 3: Haría – Teguiise, approx. 35 / 50 km

From Haría, we take the road down towards Teguiise, the one-time capital of the island. Our route gives us spectacular views down over the coast. Teguiise itself is a delightful small town with typical architecture and many pleasant bars for refreshment. From here we continue towards San Bartolomé and the fascinating wine-producing area of La Geria to our hotel where we spend the next two nights in or near Teguiise.

Day 4: Rest day or cycle tour around Teguiise, approx. 50 km

Today is a free day spent in or near Teguiise. We can choose to relax, or enjoy a round ride, or even both. Our round ride takes us towards the beautiful beach of Famara with the spectacular backdrop of volcanic cliffs. After following the coast, we head across extensive lava fields and a lunar landscape back to Teguiise.

Day 5: Teguiise – Playa Blanca, approx. 50 km

We head towards the island's main attraction, the Parque Nacional de Timanfaya. This is where Lanzarote's volcanic nature is at its most spectacular. The eruptions of 1730 - 1736 buried a quarter of the whole island, including several villages, and gave rise to the impressive lava and volcano landscape that we see today. Then to the south of the island, stopping en route to visit the seaside volcanic crater of El Golfo before we finally reach Playa Blanca.

Day 6: Excursion to El Golfo, approx. 35 km or excursion to Corralejo Nature Park, approx. 70 km + ferry ride

Playa Blanca sits at the very south of the island and looks across to Fuerteventura. Today we can take a boat (not included) across to Corralejo and enjoy a visit or a ride on another island. Alternatively, we can enjoy a day in Playa Blanca and take the opportunity to visit the nearby coves and beaches of Papagayo, the best on the island and unspoilt by tourism. Another option is to visit El Golfo for a seafood lunch by the beach.

Day 7: Playa Blanca – Arrecife, approx. 50 km

From Playa Blanca, we head to the wine country of La Geria. Here, the unusual vineyard cultivation techniques have given rise to a fascinating landscape not to be seen anywhere else in the world, and producing some fine wines. We then descend to the coast and follow a nice promenade from Puerto del Carmen to Arrecife with its charming inland harbour of El Charco.

Day 8: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
