Your tour

The Spreewald is a unique natural and cultural landscape that is protected as a biosphere reserve. The Spree forms a branched river system here. Riverine meadows and moors with the corresponding flora and fauna characterise the region, which is also used agriculturally for special crops. The best known of these are certainly the Spreewald gherkins, which have given this circular tour its name.

Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Cottbus

Welcome to Cottbus, the second largest city in Brandenburg. The market square with its baroque town houses and the oldest film theatre in Germany, built in the Art Nouveau style, are particularly worth seeing. It is also worth visiting Branitz Park, designed by Prince Pückler, with its castle. An original Spreewald snack at the beginning of the tour will put you in the right mood for the coming days.

Day 2: Cottbus – Burg, approx. 45 km

We head into the Spreewald, also known as the green Venice. First you cycle through the Peitz pond landscape. In this largest contiguous pond area in Germany, carp have been farmed for centuries. You can discover what it's like to work in an open-cast mine at various vantage points. Along the way you will also find the local museum in the stork village of Dissen, which provides information about the life and customs of the Sorbian farmers.

Day 3: Burg – Lübben, approx. 45 km

You can make a first stop today in Straupitz. This small community has two sights to offer. The white Schinkel church with its two flat towers is an unusual sight. The wings of the Dutch windmill turn slowly in the wind and you are welcome to taste the linseed oil that is produced here. Continue on to Lübben, where you can wander through man-made islands and waterways.

Day 4: Excursion to Schlepzig, approx. 40 km

In the less visited Lower Spree Forest you will come across a primeval forest-like, almost untouched nature reserve. On your way, you will pass a brewery. Why not try one of the beer specialties produced there? Afterwards, you will return to Lübben along a kilometre-long lake district on the Main Spree.

Day 5: Lübben – Burg, approx. 50 km

The Spreewald near Lübbenau has largely been preserved in its wild originality. The 300 or so natural watercourses run through green meadows and fields like shimmering blue-white threads. On your journey you will pass many well-preserved farmsteads. In Lehde you can visit the cucumber museum or the open-air museum, which gives an impression of life in the 19th century.

Day 6: Burg – Cottbus, approx. 30 km + boat trip

The typical scattered settlement of Burg lies in the heart of the Upper Preewald. Today you have the opportunity to explore the individual farmsteads of the three districts of Burg-Dorf, Burg-Kolonie and Burg-Kauper by bicycle. A two-hour punt ride is one of the highlights of the day. Well rested, the ride back to Cottbus is twice as much fun. End the day with a stroll through the city with its magnificent Art Nouveau buildings.

Day 7: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
