Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Engelhartszell

Welcome to Austria! Engelhartszell is the perfect starting point for your journey by bike and boat along the Austrian Danube. Just a few kilometres from Passau, the town has a history dating back to Roman times. Engelszell Abbey is particularly worth a visit. The only Trappist monastery in Austria impresses with its baroque architecture and rococo furnishings. It is also famous for its fine liqueurs and home-brewed beer. Embarkation takes place from around 4.00 pm to 5.00 pm. Overnight stay in Engelhartszell.

Day 2: Engelhartszell – Aschach, approx. 40 – 45 km, Aschach – Vienna-Nussdorf (boat)

Your first stage on the bike is coming up! Before setting off, it is worth visiting Engelszell Abbey, the only Trappist monastery in Austria. Through the romantic river landscape of the Schlägener Schlinge - which you can view wonderfully from one of the vantage points - you cycle further along the Danube to Aschach. There you continue by boat to Vienna in the afternoon.

Day 3: Rest day in Vienna, Wien – Budapest (boat)

Goodbye from Austria's capital! The ship remains in place until the evening. This gives you ample time to explore the city. Take a walk through the Old Town, visit St. Stephen's Cathedral, Schönbrunn Palace, the Prater and the Hofburg Palace. Or how about a cosy visit to one of the many traditional coffee houses? With many impressions in your luggage, your journey by bike and boat on the Danube takes you overnight to Budapest

Day 4: Rest day in Budapest or bike tour to Szentendre, approx. 50 km, Budapest – Visegrád (boat)

Early risers take note! The morning hours offer a particularly beautiful view of the Danube and the approaching Budapest, which you will reach in the morning. Explore the Hungarian capital at your own pace. Or do you fancy a bike trip to the enchanting artists' town of Szentendre? Enjoy your time in a charming street café and soak up the flair. From Budapest, take the boat at night to Visegrád.

Day 5: Round trip Visegrád – Vác – Visegrád, approx. 35 km, Visegrád – Bratislava (boat)

Today you will get to know the Danube Bend. From Visegrád you cycle along the section of the Danube that almost forms a right-angled bend. The slightly hilly Danube Cycle Path takes you to Vác. Visit the sublime cathedral and the triumphal arch. It is the only one in Hungary and was built over 250 years ago. Back in Visegrád, visit the castle and the royal palace. In the afternoon we take the boat to Bratislava.

Day 6: Rest day in Bratislava, Bratislava – Wachau (boat)

In the morning you arrive in Bratislava, the capital of Slovakia. Take a walk to the 4-towered castle, the city's landmark. It is enthroned on a rock above the Danube and offers its visitors beautiful views. Get to know the city more comfortably on a city tour in a vintage train (not included). Sample the hearty and rich Slovakian cuisine before returning to the ship. During the night, the ship sails into the Wachau Valley to Dürnstein or Rossatz.

Day 7: Wachau – Pöchlarn, approx. 40 – 50 km, Pöchlarn – Engelhartszell (boat)

In Dürnstein it's worth making a detour to the Blue Tower? Blue Tower? It belongs to the collegiate church and is considered the town's landmark. You continue cycling along the Danube through the Wachau, which is characterised by vineyards, apricot trees, castles and castle ruins. Again and again you can pause, get off your bike and enjoy the landscape. The grapes and young wine taste nowhere better than amidst the vines. In Pöchlarn you go back on board and enjoy the farewell dinner in the evening. During the night the ship takes you back to Engelhartszell.

Day 8: individual departure

After breakfast and disembarkation (by 09.00 a.m.), your journey by bike and boat ends.
