Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Flensburg

Flensburg is located to the north of Germany and is therefore an ideal starting point for a cycling tour on the Baltic Sea Cycle Route. After your arrival, stroll through the beautiful alleys and corners of the old town with its typical Flensburg merchants' courtyards.

Day 2: Flensburg – Åbenrå / Rodekro, approx. 55 km

You leave Flensburg behind you and after a short time cross the border into Denmark. On the Ox Trail, where cattle used to be driven to the markets, you cycle along quiet paths to Åbenrå.

Day 3: Åbenrå – Christiansfeld, approx. 50 / 75 km

Today you cycle first to Haderslev. The medieval old town on Haderslev Dam has many cafés and a walk along the medieval reservoir. Back on the saddle, you cycle comfortably through the quiet area to Christiansfeld.

Day 4: Christiansfeld – Middelfart, approx. 45 / 65 km

After leaving Christiansfeld, you cycle through the wooded region to Kolding. From afar you can already see the massive tower of the old royal castle Koldinghus. Passing Kolding Fjord and via Skærbæk, you cross the Little Belt just before you reach your destination for the day, Middelfart.

Day 5: Middelfart – Odense, approx. 55 / 65 km

Visit the Henner Friisers Hus in Middelfart. It is considered one of the most beautiful half-timbered houses in Denmark. You cycle along the coast to Strib with its small lighthouse. Take a short break on the beach: with a bit of luck you will see porpoises. It continues through idyllic landscapes until you reach Odense, the third largest city in the country. If you want to shorten the stage, follow route 6 out of Middelfart to Odense today (- 7 km).

Day 6: Odense – Svendborg / Troense, approx. 50 / 60 km

Today's stage of your cycling tour in Denmark takes you on Route 55 to the south of Funen. Passing Egeskov Castle, where you should definitely plan a visit, you will reach the coast on the western outskirts of Svendborg. If you stay overnight in Tønsø, follow route 8 over the bridge to the island of Tåsinge.

Day 7: Excursion to the island of Ærø, approx. 35 – 60 km + ferry rides

Today you will travel by ferry (included) to the Danish South Seas. Your first destination is Ærøskøbing, the oldest town on the island. You are free to decide the island completely or only the eastern or western half of the island. Whether the seafaring town of Marstal, the cliffs of Voderup Klint, the hunting lodge of Søbygaard, the lighthouse of Skjoldnæs or the beautiful Ærøskøbing – you will experience a relaxing cycling day. Depending on your wishes, the route can be shortened. The ferry (included) will take you back to Svendborg.

Day 8: Excursion to the island Skarø, approx. 5 km

First you go to the ferry port in Svendborg, from where you take the boat to the island of Skarø, where very few people live. Take your swimsuit with you and don't miss a visit to Skarø Is - Britta and Martin sell their organic ice cream with birch juice in their farm shop and café. A must!

Day 9: Svendborg – Fåborg, approx. 35 km

On today's stage you cycle partly through the seaside suburb of Rantzausminde towards the west. Already after the village of Ballen you will come to a small beach where you can unpack your swimsuit. Through slightly hilly terrain, the route leads very varied through small towns partly off the coast back to Fåborg. The Fåborg city gate Vesterport is one of only two preserved city gates in Denmark.

Day 10: Fåborg – Sønderborg, approx. 45 / 35 km + ferry ride

With its narrow, cobbled streets, Fåborg is one of the oldest and most idyllic small towns in Denmark. In Bøjden you board the ferry to the island of Als and then cycle via the harbour town of Høruphav to Sønderborg.

Day 11: Sønderborg – Flensburg, approx. 40 km

In Sønderborg, visit the castle of the same name, one of the oldest royal castles in Jutland, right on the water. Afterwards you start the last stage of your bike tour. In Dybbøl you have a wonderful view over the Flensburg Fjord. A memorial commemorates the German-Danish war in 1864. It is worth taking a break in Gråsten, where the summer residence of the Danish royal family is located. Soon you cross the border and are back in Flensburg.

Day 12: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
