Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Lübeck

Your bike tour starts in the old, magnificent Hanseatic city, which was named a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1987. If you talk about Holstentor, marzipan and Thomas Mann, Lübeck immediately comes to mind. You should not miss a fish roll as a prelude to your vacation.

Day 2: Stay in Lübeck

Today you have the opportunity to get to know Lübeck even better. Visit the five Gothic brick churches, with Lübeck Cathedral standing out in particular with its two towers. Just a few minutes' walk away, you will discover the impressive Holsten Gate, a remnant of the former city fortifications and landmark of the city. Do you fancy the sea and the beach? Then hop on your bike and head to Travemünde. The seaside resort north of Lübeck is ideal for taking a deep breath and enjoying the sun on the miles of beach.

Day 3: Lübeck – Gross Schwansee / Boltenhagen, approx. 20 / 30 km + boat and ferry trip

You start the day with a boat trip on the Trave to Travemünde. There you can visit Germany's oldest lighthouse before continuing on the first section along the Baltic Coast through Brooker Wald nature reserve to Boltenhagen. From the cliffs you have views over the entire bay. You either spend the night in Boltenhagen, or in Gross Schwansee.

Day 4: Boltenhagen – Wismar, approx. 30 km

You continue, mostly along the coast, to the old Hanseatic town of Wismar. From here we recommend a short trip to Poel island to explore its long sandy beaches and go for a swim. Historic city walls from the Thirty Year's War add charm to the island.

Day 5: Wismar – Kühlungsborn, approx. 45 km + ferry ride

Right at the start of today's stage of your cycling vacation in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern, take the opportunity to pay a visit to the island of Poel off the coast of Wismar. Take the ferry across to the small island. Alternatively, you can cycle to Kühlungsborn not far from the Baltic Sea coast.

Day 6: Stay in Kühlungsborn

Look forward to sun, beach and sea today! Spend the day as you wish. Kühlungsborn has miles of sandy beaches that invite you to sunbathe, collect shells and build sandcastles. Or how about a walk along the beach promenade and to the pier?

Day 7: Kühlungsborn – Wustrow / Ahrenshoop, approx. 30 – 60 km + ferry ride

Before you get to know the Fischland-Darß-Zingst peninsula today, Warnemünde offers a visit to the widest beach on the German Baltic coast. Or how about a detour to the Hanseatic city of Rostock? In Warnemünde you will take the ferry to Hohe Düne and reach Ribnitz-Damgarten with its amber museum or the former fishing village Wustrow or the artist village Ahrenshoop.

Day 8: Ahrenshoop – Zingst, approx. 25 – 35 km

Today's day of your cycling vacation in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern is spent on the Fischland-Darß-Zingst peninsula. On the way to your overnight stay in Zingst, take a short break for a walk along the Darß primeval forest and visit the Darß Museum in Prerow to find out more about the peninsula's maritime culture. Once you arrive in Zingst, head to the beach. Treat yourself to a long sunbath and an ice cream or pick up the ball for a game of beach volleyball.

Day 9: Stay in Zingst

A day on Zingster beach is also a good idea today. Enjoy the sweeping views of the Baltic Sea, the sound of the waves and listen to the cries of the seagulls. If you feel like getting some exercise, pay a visit to the 270-metre-long Zingster pier. If you want to spend some time on your bike today, we recommend a trip to the Hohe Düne viewing platform in the east of the peninsula. From here you have a wonderful view of the untouched northern beach.

Day 10: Zingst – Stralsund, approx. 60 km

Today you turn your back on the Fischland-Darß-Zingst peninsula, reach the mainland via the Meiningen Bridge and shortly afterwards the Vineta town of Barth. Not far from the Baltic coast, you cycle to your destination Stralsund. Mighty brick churches and town houses in the old town tell of Stralsund's glorious times, which the city on the Strelasund experienced during the Hanseatic League. At the harbor, you have the opportunity to take a look at the Gorch Fock training sailing ship and immerse yourself in the world of the Baltic and North Sea at the Ozeaneum.

Day 11: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
